

Interlacing VintageView racks can increase the capacity up to as much as 10 1/2 bottles per square foot. This capacity represents the highest available in any individual bottle storage system on the market.